

Integra LifeSciences Announces Key Executive Leadership Changes

May 21, 2020

PRINCETON, N.J., May 21, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (Nasdaq:IART) today announced changes to its executive leadership team. Michael McBreen, who is currently the corporate vice president and president of the international business, has been promoted to executive vice president and president, Codman Specialty Surgical (CSS), effective June 8, 2020. Mr. McBreen replaces Dan Reuvers, who will be leaving Integra to become chief executive officer of Tactile Systems Technology, Inc. ("Tactile Medical"), a medical technology company.

Mr. McBreen joined Integra as part of the Codman Neurosurgery acquisition from Johnson & Johnson in 2017 as the leader of the international business. Prior to Integra, he led U.S. commercial and global marketing for Codman Neurosurgery and Neurovascular businesses and was also worldwide vice president for professional education for the Johnson & Johnson Medical Device and Diagnostics Sector. Mr. McBreen also held numerous U.S. and global roles of increasing responsibility in sales and marketing at DePuy Mitek Sports Medicine, a division of Johnson & Johnson, since joining the company in 1996.

"Mike is a proven leader who has demonstrated exemplary leadership capabilities as evidenced by the expansion and strong revenue performance of our international business over the last two years. I look forward to Mike's contributions in further strengthening CSS' market leadership in neurosurgery," said Peter Arduini, president and CEO. "I want to thank Dan for his steadfast commitment to our company values and invaluable contributions to Integra's overall success. I wish him well in his future role."

Mr. Reuvers joined Integra in 2008 as vice president of marketing and product development for Integra's surgical business. He assumed roles of increasing responsibility, including president of the international business in 2013 wherein he led the significant growth in Europe, Middle East, Africa, Latin America, Asia Pacific and Canada. During his tenure as the president of CSS, Mr. Reuvers led the transformative Codman Neuro acquisition and integration, bolstering Integra's global leadership position in neurosurgery.
