This Current Report on Form 8-K/A amends and supplements the Current Report on Form 8-K/A filed by Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (the “Company” or “ILS Holdings”) on December 18, 2017 (the “First Amended Form 8-K”) to include updated unaudited special purpose combined financial statements of the Codman Neurosurgery Business (as defined below) and the related pro forma financial information. The special purpose combined financial statements of the Codman Neurosurgery Business (as defined below), represent the business acquired by Company.

As previously announced, on May 11, 2017, the Company, entered into an asset purchase agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with DePuy Synthes, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“DePuy Synthes”) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson, pursuant to which the Company agreed to acquire certain assets, and assume certain liabilities, of Johnson & Johnson’s Codman neurosurgery business (the “Codman Neurosurgery Business”) for a total purchase price of $1.045 billion.

On October 2, 2017, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the acquisition was completed. Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company paid an aggregate purchase price of $1.014 billion, subject to adjustments set forth in the Purchase Agreement relating to the book value of inventory transferred to the Company at the closing of the acquisition. The Company also recognized a liability related to a deferred payment for inventory transferred to the Company at the close of the acquisition.

To facilitate the acquisition of the Codman Neurosurgery Business, the Company identified certain assets and liabilities related to the Company’s intracranial pressure monitoring and United States (“U.S.”) fixed pressure valve shunt system businesses along with certain assets related to the Codman Neurosurgery Business’ U.S. dural graft implants, external ventricular drainage catheter and cerebrospinal fluid collection systems businesses that the Company purchased from DePuy Synthes (the “Divested Assets”), for divestment.

On September 8, 2017, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into an asset purchase agreement (the “Divestiture Agreement”) with Natus Medical Incorporated (“Natus”), pursuant to which the Company agreed to sell the Divested Assets (the “Divestiture”) to Natus. The Divestiture Agreement was entered into in connection with the review of the Company’s acquisition of the Codman Neurosurgery Business by the Federal Trade Commission and the antitrust authority of Spain. On October 6, 2017, the Company completed the Divestiture and Natus paid an aggregate purchase price of $46.4 million.

The foregoing descriptions of the Purchase Agreement and the Divestiture Agreement are not complete and are subject to and qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement, which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on May 15, 2017, and the Divestiture Agreement, which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on October 26, 2017.

Codman Neurosurgery

Notes to Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements (Unaudited)
October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016

(dollars in thousands unless otherwise noted)

1. Background

DePuy Synthes, Inc. (“DePuy”), a Delaware corporation, has agreed to divest certain assets associated with the manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of its worldwide neurosurgery business (“CNS” or the “Business”). DePuy is a wholly owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson (the “Parent” and, together with its subsidiaries, the “Company”).

The Business being divested engages in the development, manufacturing and marketing of hydrocephalus valves, neuro critical care monitors and intracranial probes, electrosurgery forceps, neuro closure kits (without plating) and neuro disposable accessories.

On February 14, 2017, DePuy entered into a Binding Offer Letter and in May 2017 entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation, a Delaware Corporation (the “Buyer”), providing for the sale of the Business for an approximate purchase price is $1.045 billion. The Company completed the transaction on October 2, 2017. The sale of the Business included inventories, property, plant and equipment primarily located at the Company’s manufacturing facilities at Raynham, Massachusetts and Le Lode, Switzerland. The sale of the Business also included trademarks, patents and intellectual property related to the Business and certain employee obligations that will be assumed by the Buyer. In connection with the Asset Purchase Agreement, DePuy and the Buyer have entered into, on closing of the transaction, a transition services agreement and a manufacturing services agreement.

2. Basis of Presentation

These Special Purpose Combined Statements of Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed as of October 1, 2017 and January 1, 2017, and the related Special Purpose Combined Statements of Revenues and Direct Expenses for the three months and nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, are derived from the historical accounting records of DePuy and certain of its affiliates and only present the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and the revenues and direct expenses, including certain allocated expenses, of the Business. These Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements are unaudited and include all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) and accruals necessary in the judgment of management for a fair statement of the results for the periods presented. It is impracticable to prepare complete financial statements related to the Business as it was not a separate legal entity of the Company and was never operated as a stand-alone business, division or subsidiary.

These Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements have been prepared to reflect the assets acquired and liabilities assumed by the Buyer in accordance with a waiver obtained by the Buyer from the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC Waiver”), and include all costs directly associated with producing revenues, including a reasonable allocation of direct expenses, and exclude costs not directly involved in the revenue producing activity, such as corporate overhead unrelated to the operational activities, interest and income tax. Therefore, these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements are not intended to be a complete presentation of the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Business in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The operations of the Business rely, to varying degrees, on DePuy and certain of its affiliates for marketing, sales order processing, billing, collection, procurement, customer service, manufacturing, warehousing and distribution, information technology, insurance, human resources, accounting, regulatory, treasury, legal support, and other administrative services, and these expenses have been allocated in these Special Purpose Combined Statements of Revenues and Direct Expenses. These Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements are not indicative of the financial condition or results of operations of the Business on a stand-alone basis, because of the reliance of the Business on DePuy, the Parent and certain of their affiliates.

These Special Purpose Combined Statements of Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed include inventories, property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and accrued employee obligations.

Codman Neurosurgery

Notes to Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements (Unaudited)
October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016

(dollars in thousands unless otherwise noted)

The operations of the Business are included in the consolidated federal income tax return of the Parent, to the extent appropriate, and are included in the foreign, state and local returns of certain other affiliates of the Parent. A provision for income taxes has not been presented in these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements as the Business has not operated as a stand-alone unit and no allocation of income tax provision/benefit has been made to the Business.

During the three months and nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, the Business' financing requirements were provided by the Company, and cash generated by the Business was swept to the Company. As the Business has historically been managed as part of the operations of DePuy and certain of its affiliates and has not been operated as a stand-alone entity, it is not practical to prepare historical cash flow information regarding the Business' operating, investing, and financing cash flows. As such, and in accordance with the SEC Waiver, statements of cash flows are not presented in these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements.

During the nine months ended October 1, 2017, the Business recorded certain adjustments related to the fiscal years ended January 1, 2017, January 3, 2016 and December 28, 2014. The effect on Revenue, net in excess of direct and allocated expenses of recording these adjustments in the nine months ended October 1, 2017 was a net increase of $1.4 million. These adjustments represent increases of approximately $0.7 million, $0.3 million and $0.4 million of previously reported Revenue, net of direct and allocated expenses for the fiscal years ended January 1, 2017, January 3, 2016 and December 28, 2014, respectively. Additionally, these adjustments represent increases of approximately $1.4 million, $ 2.1 million and $1.6 million of previously reported Total assets acquired as of January 1, 2017, April 2, 2017 and July 2, 2017, respectively. The Company's management has evaluated these out-of-period adjustments, both individually and in the aggregate, in relation to the current period financial statements as well as the period in which they originated and concluded that these adjustments are not material to all impacted periods.

3. Allocation of Certain Direct Costs and Expenses

Certain costs and expenses presented in the Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements have been allocated by the Company to the Business based on a specific identification basis or, when specific identification is not practicable, a proportional cost allocation method (primarily based upon revenues or headcount), depending on the nature of the services rendered. The Business considers that such allocations have been made on a reasonable basis but may not necessarily be indicative of the costs that would have been incurred if the Business had been operated on a stand-alone basis for the fiscal periods presented.

These Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements reflect a consistent application of methodology for each reporting period presented. Allocations of corporate overhead cost from the Company unrelated to the operations of the Business have been excluded from these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements for all periods presented.

Cost of revenue, distribution, selling and marketing, general and administrative and research and development primarily include allocations for indirect overhead incurred by the Company on behalf of the Business, primarily related to compensation for employees, outside services and shared services incurred. General and administrative costs include functions such as finance, information technology, human resources, legal, DePuy management and other administrative charges. The amounts allocated to the Business by the Company and included in the Special Purpose Combined Statements of Revenues and Direct Expenses for the fiscal periods presented are as follows:

There was no direct interest expense incurred by or allocated to the Business, therefore, no interest expense has been reflected in the Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements.

Costs incurred by the Company related to the divestiture of the Business have not been included in these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements. These costs comprised of employee related costs, audit fees, consultancy fees and other costs solely related to the divestiture of the Business.

4. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies*Principles of Combination

The accompanying Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements include the results allocated to the Business from DePuy, the Parent and certain of their affiliates. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Refer to Note 11 for transactions with related entities that have been included in these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Business to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported. These estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience, complex judgments and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances but are inherently uncertain and unpredictable. These estimates and underlying assumptions can impact all elements of these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements, including but not limited to, allocations of costs and expenses from the Company, accounting for deductions from revenue (e.g., rebates, sales discounts, allowances and incentives), and inventory valuation reserves. Actual results may or may not differ from these estimates. Also, as discussed in Note 3, these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements include allocations and estimates that are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that would have resulted if the Business had been operated as a stand-alone entity.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value (the estimated selling price less any costs of completion or distribution) determined by the first-in, first-out method and adjusted for reserves for slow moving, excess and obsolete inventory.

Property, Plant and Equipment and Depreciation

Property, plant, and equipment consists primarily of equipment used in the manufacturing of the products. Property, plant, and equipment are stated at historical cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred, while the costs of significant improvements are capitalized.

Depreciation expense is recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which are as follows:

Asset Type	Useful Life
Leasehold improvements	Up to 10 years
Building and building equipment	7-30 years
Machinery and equipment	2-8 years

Upon retirement or other disposal of property, plant and equipment, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from their respective accounts. The difference, if any, between the net asset value and the proceeds from disposal is included in Other (income) expense, net.

Long-lived assets are assessed for recoverability using undiscounted cash flows. When certain events or changes in operating or economic conditions occur, an impairment assessment is performed on the recoverability of the carrying value of these assets. If the asset is determined to be impaired, the loss is measured based on the difference between the asset's fair value and its carrying value. If quoted market prices are not available, the fair value is estimated using a discounted value of estimated future cash flows. For the three months and nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, no impairment loss was recognized.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized over their useful lives. Annually, or when certain events or changes in operating or economic conditions occur, an impairment assessment is performed on the recoverability of the carrying value of the assets. If the asset is determined to be impaired, the loss is measured based on the difference between the asset's fair value and its carrying value. For the three months and nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, no impairment loss was recognized.

Revenue Recognition

The Business recognizes revenue from product sales when the goods are shipped or delivered and title and risk of loss has been passed to the customer. Provision for rebates, returns, and incentives are accounted for as reductions in revenues in the same period the related revenues are recognized. The impact of these provisions on revenues was $5,229 and $4,614 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively, and $16,260 and $14,174 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively. The Business does not include on-invoice discounts within the provisions above.

Product discounts granted are based on the terms of arrangements with direct, indirect and other market participants, as well as market conditions, including prices charged by competitors. Rebates, which are generally given to customers that meet contractual performance and volume commitments, are estimated based on contractual terms, historical experience, trend analysis and projected market conditions in the various markets served. Market conditions are evaluated primarily through the analysis of market research data and internally generated information. Sales returns are generally estimated and recorded based on historical sales and returns information.

During the fiscal year ended January 1, 2017, a competitor of the Business reached a definitive agreement to acquire Synergetics USA, Inc.'s neuro portfolio, which includes products for which the Business had distribution agreements through December 31, 2016. Distribution agreements for certain markets, primarily the United States of America ("U.S."), were not renewed. Revenue associated with these products in the U.S. was $273 and $7,991 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively and $6,570 and $25,200 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively.

Shipping and Handling

Shipping and handling costs incurred were $3,029 and $3,085 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively and $8,649 and $9,192 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively, and are included in “Distribution Expenses” in these Special Purpose Combined Statements of Revenues and Direct Expenses.

Such expenses were $846 and $618 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively, and were $1,983 and $1,769 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively.

Research and Development (“R&D”)

R&D expenses are expensed as incurred. The Business has internal R&D and third party arrangements. Upfront and milestone payments made to third parties in connection with R&D collaborations are expensed as incurred up to the point of regulatory approval.

Foreign Currency

All foreign currency transactions are initially measured and recorded in the functional currency at the date of the transaction.

Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are remeasured at exchange rates in effect at each period end and such remeasurement gains and losses are included within other (income) expense, net. For the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, the Business recognized net loss of $1,551 and net gain of $591, respectively. For the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, the Business recognized net gains of $247 and $1,065, respectively.

The Company translates the functional currency financial information of non-U.S. operations into U.S. Dollars, the Business’ reporting currency, using the period end exchange rate for assets acquired and liabilities assumed and average exchange rates for revenues and direct and allocated expenses.

Stock Based Compensation

Certain eligible employees of the Business have been awarded stock option grant or restricted stock units under the Company’s stock option plans. These stock options and restricted stock grants are accounted for under the fair value method of equity-based compensation accounting principles and have been recognized in these Special Purpose Combined Financial Statements. Stock based compensation expense recognized was $328 and $363 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively and $1,048 and $1,155 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively. Certain eligible employees of the Business also participated in various other Company benefit plans, as described in Notes 9 and 10.

Severance

The Business incurred severance expense, primarily from restructuring related activities, of $36 and $45 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively and $490 and $1,758 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively, which are included in these Special Purpose Combined Statements of Revenues and Direct Expenses.

These contracts have been designated as cash flow hedges in accordance with the appropriate accounting guidance. The terms of these contracts are generally one to two years. In accordance with the Company's accounting practice, contracts are marked to fair value on a quarterly basis based upon the difference between the contract rate and the forward rate for the remaining portion of the contract.
