Integra LifeSciences Announces Service Alliance Agreement With PREZIO Health

PLAINSBORO, N.J., Feb. 25, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Integra LifeSciences Holding Corporation (NASDAQ:IART) today announced its service alliance agreement with PREZIO Health, a leader in perioperative services, repair, maintenance and management of surgical instruments.

Together, Integra and PREZIO will offer customers an integrated approach to surgical instrument life-cycle management, including surgical instrumentation, services, repair and replacement.

"This agreement reflects Integra's commitment to offer our customers and patients a full-service solution that improves patient care and reduces costs," said Robert T. Davis, Jr., Integra's CVP and President - Specialty Surgical Solutions.

Under the terms of the agreement, PREZIO Health will act as Integra's authorized surgical instruments service provider, providing a nationwide team of experienced technicians, mobile labs and national repair centers that can quickly service Integra's customer base.

"The life expectancy of surgical instruments is more important than ever," stated Chris Bartlett, Integra's VP Sales — Specialty Surgical Solutions. "Preventative maintenance from PREZIO Health's skilled technicians can extend the life of surgical instruments and reduce capital expenditures."

"We are pleased to provide Integra and their customers with the necessary service capabilities as both companies focus on providing the highest quality patient care possible," stated Greg Bright, PREZIO's Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer.
