Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

As previously announced on May 11, 2017, Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Company” or “Integra”), entered into an asset purchase agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with DePuy Synthes, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“DePuy Synthes”) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson, pursuant to which the Company agreed to acquire certain assets, and assume certain liabilities, of Johnson & Johnson’s Codman neurosurgery business (the “Acquisition”).

On October 2, 2017, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the Acquisition was completed. Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company paid an aggregate purchase price of $1,044,218,000, subject to purchase price adjustments for certain inventory changes. The assets and liabilities subject to the Acquisition relate to the research, development, manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of certain products of Johnson & Johnson’s Codman business used in connection with neurosurgery procedures.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is not complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on May 15, 2017 and the terms of which are incorporated by reference herein.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On October 2, 2017, the Company borrowed $700 million under that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of December 7, 2016 (the “Credit Agreement”) among the Company, a syndicate of lending banks, and Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent. The $700 million was borrowed under the delayed draw term loan A facility that, as previously reported, was established on March 31, 2017 by the Company’s entry into the first amendment to the Credit Agreement. The Company’s ability to borrow the delayed draw term loans was conditioned upon its satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions, which, as of October 2, 2017, have been satisfied.

The credit facility requires the Company to maintain various financial covenants, including a maximum consolidated total leverage ratio and a minimum consolidated interest coverage ratio. The credit facility also contains customary affirmative and negative covenants, including those that limit Integra’s and its subsidiaries’ ability to incur additional debt, incur liens and make investments.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 2, 2017, the Company issued a Press Release announcing, among other things, completion of the Acquisition, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1, and incorporated into this Item 7.01 by reference. The information contained herein, including the attached press release, is furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 of Form 8-K and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except as may be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits

(a) Financial Statements of Business Acquired

To be filed by amendment not later than 71 calendar days after the date this Current Report is required to be filed.

(b) Pro Forma Financial Information

Integra LifeSciences Completes the Acquisition of Codman Neurosurgery Business from Johnson & Johnson

Plainsboro, New Jersey, October 2, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (Nasdaq: IART), a global leader in medical technology, announced today that it has completed the previously announced acquisition of the Johnson & Johnson Codman Neurosurgery business for approximately $1.045 billion less customary adjustments, enhancing Integra's position as a leading global provider of neurosurgical products.

“The addition of Codman Neurosurgery expands our global leadership position by creating one of the broadest medical device portfolios in the neurosurgery market,” said Peter Arduini, Integra's president and chief executive officer. “Our planned investments in product innovation and global infrastructure will allow us to provide more healthcare solutions to surgeons and their patients worldwide.”

Integra expects it will complete the previously announced divestiture of certain neurosurgery assets, including Integra's global Camino® ICP monitoring product line, the U.S. rights relating to Integra's fixed pressure shunts, as well as U.S. rights to Codman's DURAFORM®, standard EVD catheters and CSF collection systems, to Natus Medical in the coming days. The foregoing divestiture is being made as a result of regulatory reviews by the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the National Markets and Competition Commission of Spain.

“The Codman acquisition is transformational to Integra and creates significant long-term growth opportunities for our entire company,” said Mr. Arduini. “We are excited to welcome our new colleagues from around the world into the Integra organization.”

Bank of America Merrill Lynch acted as exclusive financial advisor and Latham & Watkins LLP acted as legal advisor to Integra.
