GENERAL

We are providing this Proxy Statement to holders of our common stock in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (the “Company”) of proxies to vote shares of common stock at the Company’s Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The Special Meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. local time on Wednesday, December 21, 2016 at the Company’s Corporate Headquarters, 315 Enterprise Drive, Plainsboro, New Jersey. We are first mailing this Proxy Statement and the form of proxy to stockholders of the Company on or about November 7, 2016. In this proxy, unless the context requires otherwise, references to “we”, “our”, or “us” refer to Company.

PURPOSE OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

The purpose of the Special Meeting is for the Company’s stockholders to consider and vote upon a proposal to amend the Company’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the “Certificate of Incorporation”) (i) to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock (“Common Stock”) from 60,000,000 to 240,000,000 shares (the “Amendment”) for the purpose of, among other things, effecting a two-for-one stock split of the Company’s Common Stock as part of the Amendment and (ii) any other matters properly coming before the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. The text of the Amendment is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. We do not expect any matters to be presented for action at the Special Meeting other than the items described in this Proxy Statement.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to amend the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 60,000,000 shares to 240,000,000 shares and effect a two-for-one stock split (“Proposal One”).

RECORD DATE FOR VOTING AND SHARES OUTSTANDING

As of October 27, 2016, the record date for the Special Meeting, 37,385,969 shares of our Common Stock were outstanding. Only holders of record of our Common Stock as of the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

QUORUM

Each share of our Common Stock entitles the holder of record thereof to one vote. Each stockholder may vote in person or by proxy on all matters that properly come before the Special Meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders entitled to vote a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum for purposes of voting at the Special Meeting. Abstentions will be counted for determining whether a quorum is present for the Special Meeting.

REQUIRED VOTE

The Amendment (Proposal One) requires the affirmative vote (“FOR” vote) of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, so a failure to vote your shares is effectively a vote “AGAINST” the proposal. You may vote for, against, or abstain on the Amendment. Abstentions from voting will be considered shares present and entitled to vote on the Amendment and, since approval of the Amendment requires a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” the Amendment.

DISCRETIONARY PROPOSAL

If you are the beneficial owner and hold your shares in street name and do not provide your bank, broker or other nominee that holds your shares with voting instructions, the bank, broker or other nominee will determine if it has the discretionary authority to vote on the particular matter. Your bank, broker or other nominee may vote your shares in its discretion on “routine” matters. The proposal to be considered at the Special Meeting is considered a “routine” matter. This means that your bank, broker or other nominee may vote in its discretion on Proposal One on your behalf if you have not furnished voting instructions.

HOW TO VOTE

If you have shares for which you are the stockholder of record, you may vote those shares in person or submit a proxy to have them voted at the Special Meeting. You may submit your proxy by following the instructions provided in the proxy materials provided to you. For Proposal One, you may vote “FOR,” “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN.” If you sign your proxy card or broker voting instruction card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. Additionally, shares held in your name as the stockholder of record may be voted by you in person at the Special Meeting.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in “street name,” you may also submit a proxy or cause your shares to be voted by following the voting instruction card provided. Under the rules that govern brokers who are voting shares held in street name, brokers have the discretion to vote those shares on “routine” matters, such as Proposal One. If your shares are held in street name, you may not vote your shares in person at the Special Meeting unless you obtain a “legal proxy” from the broker or nominee that holds the shares giving you the right to vote the shares at the Special Meeting.

Even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting, we recommend that you also submit your proxy or voting instructions as described below so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Special Meeting.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

You may revoke your proxy by (a) delivering to the Secretary of the Company at or before the Special Meeting a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy, (b) duly executing a subsequent proxy bearing a later date relating to the same shares of Common Stock and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company at or before the Special Meeting or (c) attending the Special Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Special Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy). Any written notice revoking a proxy should be delivered at or prior to the Special Meeting to: Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation, 311 Enterprise Drive, Plainsboro, New Jersey 08536, Attention: Corporate Vice President, General Counsel, Administration and Secretary. Beneficial owners of our Common Stock who are not holders of record and wish to revoke their proxy should contact their bank, brokerage firm or other custodian, nominee or fiduciary to inquire about how to revoke their proxy, and may not revoke their proxy by one of the methods set forth above.

SOLICITATION

We will bear all expenses of this solicitation, including the cost of preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement. In addition to solicitation by use of mail, proxies may be solicited by telephone, facsimile or personally by our directors, officers and employees, who will receive no extra compensation for their services. In addition, the Company has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies and will pay such firm a fee of $8,500 plus reasonable expenses. We will also reimburse banks, brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy soliciting materials to beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock.

PROPOSAL ONE: APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, AS AMENDED, OF INTEGRA LIFESCIENCES HOLDINGS CORPORATION TO INCREASE THE TOTAL NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF COMMON STOCK FOR THE PURPOSE OF, AMONG OTHER THINGS, EFFECTING A PROPOSED TWO-FOR-ONE STOCK SPLIT AS PART OF THE AMENDMENT

Description of Proposed Amendment and Vote Required

At present, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 60,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share. This is the first time that the Company is seeking to authorize additional shares of Common Stock under the Certificate of Incorporation since 1992.

The Board of Directors of the Company have approved, subject to shareholder approval, and declared it advisable to amend the Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 60,000,000 to 240,000,000 shares in order to effect a two-for-one stock split as part of such amendment as well as create financial flexibility for the Company, as described below. The additional shares of Common Stock would have rights identical to the currently outstanding Common Stock. The Board directed that the Amendment be submitted for approval by stockholders at a Special Meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company is required to approve the Amendment.

The full text of the Amendment, which includes the two-for-one stock split, is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. The Amendment will not affect the number of shares of Preferred Stock authorized, which is 15,000,000 shares. Taking into account the effect of the two-for-one stock split, the proposed increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock represents a 100% increase in the number of post-split authorized shares of Common Stock.

Purposes and Effects of Increasing the Number of Authorized Shares of Common Stock

Our Certificate of Incorporation currently authorizes the issuance of up to 60,000,000 shares of our Common Stock, par value $.01 per share. On October 27, 2016, there were 37,385,969 shares of our Common Stock outstanding (including outstanding restricted stock awards), 1,509,014 shares subject to outstanding stock options, restricted stock units/contract stock awards, and performance stock units granted under our 2000 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended), 2001 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended), Third Amended and Restated 2003 Equity Incentive Plan and Employee Stock Purchase Plan (as amended) (the "Equity Incentive Plans"), 2,134,590 shares remaining available for future issuances under our equity plans, 5,287,388 shares reserved in accordance with our 1.625% Convertible Notes due in December 2016 ("Convertible Notes"), and 8,597,416 shares reserved pursuant to warrants due in August 2017 that are associated with the convertible note hedge of the Convertible Notes (the "Warrants"). The Convertible Notes and Warrants were issued in June 2011, leaving only a limited number of shares of Common Stock currently available for future issuance because of the approximate 13,884,804 shares of Common Stock held in reserve pursuant to such instruments. The Company believes the issuance of the Convertible Notes was a beneficial market-based capital transaction that provided the Company with significant capital resources to pursue its strategic objectives. The Convertible Notes and Warrants, through their terms and structure, require the reservation of a significant number of Common Stock. Accordingly, approximately 5,000,000 authorized shares of our Common Stock remain available for issuance or may be reserved for issuance.

One of the primary reasons for the Amendment is to effect a two-for-one forward stock split. The Board also believes that the Company is at an important point in its plan for growth and that an increase in its authorized Common Stock will help enable and fortify continued growth over the long term. Currently, 91.5% of the Company's authorized shares of Common Stock have been either issued, or are reserved for issuance under the Company's equity incentive plans, the Convertible Notes, and the Warrants. As a result of these significant reserved shares, the Company does not currently have sufficient shares authorized to (i) effectuate the desired two-for-one stock split, (ii) to pursue opportunities described below using the Company's Common Stock as significant consideration, or (iii) take certain other actions that the Board may determine are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

In addition to enabling the Company to effect the stock split, the increase in our authorized Common Stock is intended to provide the Company with greater flexibility in considering and planning for future corporate needs, such as financings, potential strategic transactions, as well as other general corporate transactions. For example, the Company could issue additional shares of Common Stock in the future in connection with one or more of the following (subject to laws or regulations or NASDAQ or other exchange rules, as applicable, that might require stockholder approval of certain transactions):

- Acquisitions;
- Partnerships, collaborations and other similar transactions;
- Financing transactions, such as public or private offerings of Common Stock or convertible securities;
- Debt or equity restructuring or refinancing transactions;
- Stock dividends; or
- Any other proper corporate purposes.

If the Company does not have enough authorized shares to undertake appealing financing transactions or debt or equity restructuring or refinancing transactions, the Company could run the risk of obtaining unfavorable financing terms, which also may involve use of the Company's cash reserves at inopportune times, and incur additional expense that could be avoided if sufficient authorized shares were available for issuance. The increase in the number of authorized shares is intended to provide us with flexibility to undertake a variety of matters should the right opportunities arise without the delay and expense associated with convening a special meeting of our stockholders to increase authorized shares at a later time.

An increase in the number of authorized shares of our Common Stock may make it more difficult to, or discourage an attempt to, obtain control of our Company by means of a takeover bid that the Board determines is not in our best interest or that of our stockholders. However, the Board does not intend or view the proposed increase in the number of authorized shares of our Common Stock as an anti-takeover measure.

Purposes and Effects of Proposed Two-For-One Stock Split

The Board anticipates that the increase in the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company resulting from the proposed stock split will place the market price of the Common Stock in a range more attractive to investors, which may result in a broader market for our Common Stock. As the trading price of our Common Stock has risen, we have carefully evaluated the effect of the trading price of our Common Stock on the liquidity and marketability of our Common Stock. The closing market price of our Common Stock on October 27, 2016 was $77.07 as reported on the NASDAQ. The Board believes that effecting the stock split could support liquidity in the trading of our Common Stock and make it more attractive to a broader range of investors.

If stockholders dispose of their shares subsequent to the stock split, they could pay higher brokerage commissions on the same relative interest in the Company because that interest is represented by a greater number of shares. Stockholders should consult their respective brokers to ascertain the brokerage commission that would be charged for disposing of the greater number of shares.

The stock split would also increase the number of shares of Common Stock available for issuance under our Equity Incentive Plans. With respect to outstanding stock options to purchase shares of our common stock, the stock split would effect an increase in the number of shares subject to such outstanding stock options proportional to the two-for-one ratio of the stock split and would effect a proportionate decrease in the exercise price of such outstanding stock options (rounded up to the nearest whole cent). With respect to other outstanding awards to acquire shares of Common Stock, the stock split would effect an increase in the number of shares subject to such outstanding awards proportional to the two-for-one ratio of the stock split.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Stock Split

The following discussion is a summary of the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a stockholder who exchanges shares of Common Stock pursuant to the stock split, but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects. The effects of other U.S. federal tax laws, such as estate and gift tax laws, and any applicable state, local or non-U.S. tax laws are not discussed. This discussion is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions, and published rulings and administrative pronouncements of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”), in each case in effect as of the date hereof. These authorities may change or be subject to differing interpretations. Any such change or differing interpretation may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a stockholder. We have not sought and will not seek any rulings from the IRS regarding the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance the IRS or a court will not take a contrary position to that discussed below regarding the tax consequences of the exchange of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the stock split.

This discussion is limited to stockholders that hold our Common Stock as a “capital asset” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to a stockholder’s particular circumstances, including the impact of the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income. In addition, it does not address consequences relevant to a stockholder subject to special rules, including, without limitation:

- U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- persons subject to the alternative minimum tax;
- persons holding our Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle or other risk reduction strategy or as part of a conversion transaction or other integrated investment;
- banks, insurance companies, and other financial institutions;
- brokers, dealers or traders in securities;
- corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- partnerships or other entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and investors therein);
- tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;
- persons deemed to sell our Common Stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code;
- persons who hold or receive our Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of any employee stock option or otherwise as compensation;
- tax-qualified retirement plans; and
- non-U.S. persons.

If an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds our Common Stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will depend on the status of the partner, the activities of the partnership and certain determinations made at the partner level. Accordingly, partnerships holding our Common Stock and the partners in such partnerships should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them.

We will not recognize any gain or loss for tax purposes as a result of the stock split. Furthermore, the stock split will not result in the recognition of gain or loss to holders of our Common Stock. The holding period for the shares of Common Stock each stockholder receives will include the holding period of the shares exchanged in the stock split. The aggregate adjusted basis of the new shares of Common Stock will be equal to the aggregate adjusted basis of the old shares exchanged in the stock split.

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE EXCHANGE OF OUR COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO THE STOCK SPLIT ARISING UNDER THE U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE INCOME TAX TREATY.

Effective Date of Amendment and Issuance of Shares for Stock Split

If the Amendment is adopted by the required vote of stockholders, it will become effective on the date the Amendment is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, which will also be the date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to additional shares as a result of the stock split. Holders of record of our common stock as of the effective time of the Amendment will be entitled to additional shares. If the Amendment is approved, the Company currently anticipates filing the Amendment with the Delaware Secretary of State on December 21, 2016 and the distribution of such additional shares occurring on January 3, 2017.

Right to Abandon Amendment and Stock Split

The Board reserves the right, notwithstanding stockholder approval of the Amendment, and without further action by the stockholders, to elect not to proceed with the Amendment and abandon the Amendment, including the stock split, if, at any time prior to filing the Amendment, the Board determines that it is no longer in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to proceed with Amendment, including the stock split. If the Board elects to abandon the Amendment, the number of authorized shares of Common Stock will remain 60,000,000 and the two-for-one stock split will not be effected. By approving Proposal One, you grant the Board discretionary authority to determine whether to proceed with the Amendment, including the stock split.

Vote Required

Approval of the adoption of the Amendment requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote thereon.

Board of Directors' Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, AS AMENDED, OF INTEGRA LIFESCIENCES HOLDINGS CORPORATION TO INCREASE THE TOTAL NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF COMMON STOCK FOR THE PURPOSE OF, AMONG OTHER THINGS, EFFECTING A PROPOSED TWO-FOR-ONE STOCK SPLIT AS PART OF THE AMENDMENT.
