Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 9, 2019, the board of directors of Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (the “Company”) elected Rhonda Germany Ballintyn to our board of directors. The appointment will return the Company’s board to nine members and the number of independent directors to eight following the death of James M. Sullivan in September 2018. The board has determined that Ms. Ballintyn is “independent” as contemplated by the Nasdaq Stock Market and other governing laws and applicable regulations, including Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Ms. Ballintyn was also added to the board’s compensation committee.

Ms. Ballintyn will receive compensation as a non-employee director in accordance with our company’s non-employee director compensation practices described in the Annual Proxy Statement we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 6, 2018. The initial annual board retainer and equity grant to be received by Ms. Ballintyn will be pro-rated.

There are currently no arrangements or understandings between Ms. Ballintyn and any other person pursuant to which Ms. Ballintyn was elected as a director. There are currently no transactions in which Ms. Ballintyn has an interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

In connection with this election, the Company and Ms. Ballintyn will enter into an indemnification agreement consistent with the form of the Company’s indemnification agreement entered into with its other directors and filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 24, 2008.

A copy of the press release we issued announcing the election of Rhonda Germany Ballintyn to the board of directors is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.

Integra LifeSciences Appoints Rhonda Germany Ballintyn as Director

PLAINSBORO, N.J., January 9, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (Nasdaq:IART), a leading global medical technology company, today announced the appointment of Rhonda Germany Ballintyn to its board of directors, effective today. Ms. Germany Ballintyn's appointment will return the company's board to nine members following the death of James M. Sullivan in September 2018.

Ms. Germany Ballintyn also will serve on the board's compensation committee.

"We are thrilled to have Rhonda join us on Integra's board," said Stuart Essig, chairman of the Integra board of directors. "She has a demonstrated record of achievement across multiple industries and her decades of management, marketing and strategy experience are a terrific complement to an already seasoned and diverse board."

Ms. Germany Ballintyn, 62, was the corporate vice president, chief strategy and marketing officer at Honeywell International Inc. from November 2002 until her retirement in March 2017, responsible for developing and driving Honeywell's growth strategies worldwide and leading the company's annual strategic planning process.

Prior to Honeywell, Ms. Germany Ballintyn was with Booz, Allen & Hamilton, where she served as vice president, partner, board member and member of the board's personnel committee. Prior to Booz, Allen & Hamilton, Ms. Germany Ballintyn ran an independent consulting firm specializing in strategic planning. She also held management positions at Chem Systems Inc. and Union Carbide.

Ms. Germany Ballintyn earned a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Michigan and an MBA in finance from the University of Connecticut.

"Given our long-term growth aspirations, Rhonda's leadership at Honeywell, a Fortune 100 company with a long history of execution excellence, is highly relevant to Integra," said Peter Arduini, president, chief executive officer and director. "We will benefit from Rhonda's insight, and I look forward to working with her."

In addition to serving on the Integra board of directors, Ms. Germany Ballintyn is a member of the board of directors of Hypertherm, Inc., a private manufacturer of industrial cutting solutions; Univar Inc., a public distributor of chemistry and related products and services; Aegion Corporation, a public provider of pipeline services; and UMUC Ventures, a nonprofit holding company created by the University of Maryland University College to acquire, develop and sell new products and businesses generating revenues for the university.
